

SPRING DOCTORAL GATHERING

March 13, 2026, at 4 - 5:30 p.m on Zoom

Join us for an engaging virtual gathering designed to connect faculty with doctoral students. Share your research interests, spark new ideas, and build meaningful scholarly relationships. This event offers a valuable opportunity to support students as they form dissertation committees while fostering interdisciplinary dialogue and academic community. Faculty participation is warmly welcomed and greatly appreciated.

Whether you're currently serving on committees or simply open to connecting with doctoral students, this gathering offers a meaningful opportunity to engage, mentor, and build scholarly connections.

We would be delighted to have you join us!

THIS EVENT IS A CHANCE TO:

- ✦ Meet and connect with doctoral students seeking faculty mentorship and potential dissertation committee members
- ✦ Share your research interests and areas of expertise while learning about students' scholarly interests
- ✦ Strengthen academic community and collaboration across SEHD through meaningful dialogue
