

Student Privacy and Federal Law Enforcement on Campus

Who Should Attend: All CU Denver Faculty and Staff. These sessions are not open to students; student sessions are being held separately.

Why Participate:

- Educate our campus and external community on the complexities of immigration, based on scholarly research by faculty scholars
- Prepare our campus community for unscheduled visits by federal agencies that may impact learners

Participants will leave this session with:

- Reminder of laws regarding student privacy and FERPA
- Knowledge of what to do if federal law enforcement is on campus
- Contact information for Campus Resources
- Safety cards to distribute

Details:

- 10 sessions offered throughout June, July and August 2026 (see dates on reverse)
- 1-hour sessions
- In-person only
- Registration:
